I have sent Mr Hindalls manuscripts by the bearer Mr. V. S. P. who I am sure will deliver them safe to you on his arrival - I have also sent by the same vessel a Packet of Letters by Mr Watson Mr. of the Harbour which I will arrive safe - Should Mr. V. S. P. return to Miss Colony, which is his present intention he will take charge of any thing you may wish to send. I forgot to mention in my Letters a bale of Sticks which are wanted for the crew of the Achue, with Cordage and Canvas. I paid nine Pounds a Bolt for the best Canvas I purchased for the Sails. I should wish a supply of Sticks Canvas and Cordage annually sent out and charged to my Account for the Achue.
