

191 And on the 24th. We are sailing about to north Mr Kemp continues to get better Peterree would not attend school to day Davi begins to improve in reading and can do a sum in Addition pretty well

On the 25th sailing with a fresh breeze but in the evening it was almost a calm Mr Kemp not quite so well employed in school with Davi

And on the 26th. The wind much the same the sea like a pole; to Day the Captain gave the men leave to bathe over board one of the Soldiers expecting he could swim went over to try but could not and was very near heaving a watery grave but a man caught hold of him till the boat came to his assistance Mr Kemp better

On the 27th. The wind much the same as the day past employed in school with Mr Hall and Davi Mr Kemp much better

Sunday the 28th. But little wind We had Publick Service on deck Mr Croft read a Sermon from the 51st Psalm and 17th ver and the greatest attention was paid by all. May God of his greater mercy enable them all to feel from (a sense of sin) that broken and contrite spirit which god will not despise

In the evening Mr Butler read a sermon from the 3rd of Phelipians over

March the 1st. The wind much the same, two Ships in sight Indianan left the downs the same time we did, the Captain had intercourse with one of them employed in school with Davi My Language is with one of old lore I believe help any un belief

On the 2nd. The wind much the same employed in school bless the lord, we all enjoy our health much more considering how hot it is at this present We are now in latitude 25^{Day in}

On the 3rd. The wind remain the same employed as usual

And on the 4th. We are sailing with a gentle Breeze about employed in school to day my soul was refreshed in reading the 145 Psalm in that our lord have said he is nigh unto all that them that call upon him faithfully