

X
Sunday the 21st. But little wind almost a calm We had Publick service on Deck as usual Mr Grop read sermon from the 8th of Romans Ist vers the subject consisted of what it was to be in Christ Jesus the greatest attention was paid by all present in the evening we had service in Mr Hall's Cabin Mr Butten read a sermon from the 6th of st Mark ^{Chap^r} 14th vers I hope the Lord was with us and blessed our meeting together

On the 22nd, The wind much the same as the day past Mrs Kemp much the same employed in school as usual Latitude - Longitude
25-12-31-10

On the 23rd But little wind Mrs Kemp pretty well employed in school

And on the 24th, almost a calm to day I felt myself unwell with a sad pain in my head I caught a sad cold Mrs Kemp not so well employed I could not attend school to day

On the 25th, The wind quite gone the swell is very grate which caused Mrs Kemp to be very sick I suffered to day a grate deal of pain, I took a dose of Medisen from the doctor and by the blessing of the Lord I received a great benefit from it The Surgeon of the Ship is a very kind man Indeed Sir I enjoyed grate comfort in meditating on that part of scripture where it is said We have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities but was in all points tempted like as we are and is able to succore all them that are tempted In all our afflictions he was afflicted

On the 26th, The wind much the same so that we make but little way Mrs Kemp much the same I feel much better to day

On the 27th, The wind somewhat better for us Mrs Kemp feel better to day, blest the Lord I am findly to day I wish I could feel more grateful to our heavenly father for all his mercys towards us What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits nothing but praise and ask him for more Latitude - Longitude
27-11 31-10