

On the 13th The wind quite fair for us. This morning another convict died his name is George Matthews we trust that he had an interest in the blood and righteousness of Christ. employed in school

And on the 14th To Day it blew a sharp gale of wind and the wind not so fair for our Mrs Bent Britney well employed as usual. The Lord have done great things for us wereof we are glad

On the 15th Early this morning the wind abated and blew against us so that we could not keep our course employed in school

Sunday the 16th The wind much the same we had Publick Service on Deck Mr Croft read sermon from the 8th of Jeremiah 20<sup>vers</sup> the subject was very encouraging for poor sinners to come and be healed with that balm which alone can heal the wildest of the wile in the evening Mr Butler read a sermon from the 1st of Ephesians 7<sup>vers</sup>

Latitude - Longitude
2 - 30
38 - 30 South, 108 - 30 East

On the 17th The wind much the same employed in school The Lord hath indeed heared the voice of our supplications

On the 18th Sailing much the same we cannot keep our course employed in school

Latitude - Longitude
2 - 30
37 - 35 - 0 South, 113 - 58 -

On the 19th The wind not so fair as it was we lay quite out of our course Mrs Bent not so well employed in school and in writing

And on the 20th But little wind in the Evening Mr Butler was taken very ill with pain in his Chest the Doctor bled him and by the Blessing of the Lord he received a grate Benefit employed in school

On the 21st We had a calm Mr Butler is better but very weak employed in school Mrs Bent prosery

And on the 22nd Sailing with a fair wind Mr Butler better employed in school

Latitude - Longitude
2 - 30
36 - 20 South, 121 - 5 East

Sunday the 23rd The wind much the same We had Publick Service on Deck Mr Croft read a sermon from the 14th Psalm 16<sup>vers</sup> the subject was to shew were true happiness is to be obtained and that the greatest part of the world is seeking it where it is not to be obtained all very attentive in the evening Mr Butler read a sermon from the 24th of Matthew where the Deceit was chosen on the occasion of one of the Convicts at the present being dead in the Ship died to Day his name is Bailey a man that have been afflicted for some time and sent for Mr Butler to ask some advice for his soul

Latitude - Longitude
2 - 30
36 - 20 South, 121 - 5 East