

And on the 24th. Sailing with a stiff Breeze of wind and and laying our course. Employed as usual in School

On the 25th. The wind blowing quite against us employed as the Day past My Soul to Day was refreshed in reading that sweet Promise in the Psalms The Lord upholdeth all that fall and raiseth up those that be bowed down

And on the 27th. The wind much the same as the Day past employed in School as usual. About Midnight last a false alarm ^{was made} by the officers of the watch, which frightened Mr Butter and Mr Croft on which account Mr Butter got up to go out to see what was the Danger and found it all false Mr Butter was very ill treated which I think was very wrong

On the 28th. The wind the same employed as the Day past I am sorrow to say that Gooi and Tetterwee do not shew that regard for us and espesially ^{for} Mr Hall who is like a father ^{to them} but the Lord will be sufficient for us may the Lord bless them

And on the 29th. The wind quite against us so that we could not lay our course employed as the Day past Sunday the 30th. The wind remain in the same place we could not have Publick Service on Deck to day the wether is too cold we had Service as usual in Mr Halls' Cabin. Mr Butter was taken poorly in the afternoon with pain in his stomach so that he could not attend in the Evening. our Subject in the evening was The carnal mind is enmity against god from the 8th of Romans ^{ch. 7} I trust the Lord bless our souls in meeting together
