

And on the 9th. The wind quite against us ¹⁰⁰ employed in school
The two Natives improve better than they did.

On the 10th. The Night-past the wind came quite fair for us and it blew quite fresh Early this Morning land in sight the coast of windward land - employed as the day past.

And on the 11th. The wind not fair early this Morning we got into Storm Bay and kept beating about there all the day with a foul wind - employed as usual.

On the 12th. Early this Morning we got into the River Derwent the wind against us but we were able to keep beating up the river all the day - employed half the day in school the rest in writing - I trust I can say that my desire is that the Lord God may show us the way wherein we may walk and the thing ^{that} we may do.

Sunday the 13th. Wind another early this Morning to proceed to the river Derwent but very little wind - We had Divine Service twice in the day in Mr Hall's Cabin Mr Butler read a Sermon in the Evening from ^{chap} 16 of Mark ^{vers} 15 - I trust my soul has this day been benefited and my spiritual strength renewed.

On the 14th. We reached Hobart Town about noon and there we cast anchor in the afternoon we went on shore as the usual custom is to pay the Governor a visit he received us very kindly and wished us the greatest success in our work - My language is with the Psalmist what shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits to us in bringing us in safety to this friendly Port.

And on the 15th. Went on shore with my friends to take a view of the country I saw the plough going - and a Church building the land is very good and the climate very fine - You true is that Passage the Harvest is plentiful but the labours are few O that God may raise up some faithful servants and send to this corner of the earth.

On the 16th. We all went on shore to see some friends who showed the greatest kindness to our wives and treated us with the greatest respect we returned on board the same evening all very much gratified in seeing Providence smile upon this Island O that he may soon bless it with the Blessings of his Gospel.
