

But our blessed Saviour, who saith to the stormy wind, "Peace be still," protected us in every peril, and delivered us from every danger; blessed and praised be his Holy Name for every and ever.

Sunday 25th April, a very strong gale, no service could be performed on deck. Visited the sick in Hospital. One poor man seemed very anxious about his salvation. Endeavoured to point him to the blood of Christ, which cleanseth from all sin.

Tuesday Apr 27th Spoke to the convicts from the 6th of the 8th Chap of Romans, after reading them. Visited the sick in the Hospital. Mr Bailey - a patient very ill, seemed to be very earnest in inquiring the way, to obtain pardon and peace.

Wednesday 28th Apr - R Stevens, a patient in the Hospital died. May the Lord be merciful unto him. He was very ignorant, (he knew but very little, if any thing) about Christ and his Salvation.

Thursday 29 Apr Buried poor Stevens at 6 O'Clock AM. Friday & Saturday Regular school among convicts. In the course of this week they have read St Pauls Eps to the Ephesians. From which I have deliv^d several exhortations. Also we endeavoured to improve the circumstance of Stevens's death. I spoke to them from the 15th Chap Corinth^{ians} all very attentive, several wept.

Sunday May the 2nd Divine service on deck in the morning. Mr Halls baptis in the evening. Administered the Holy Sacraments to 8 Communicants.
