

Saturday May 10th, Regular school among the Convicts, thro' this week, and very well attended. Visited the sick in the Hospital daily. I humbly endeavour, at all times, to speak a word in season to the sufferer, in the House of mourning lamentation and woe, I hope the Lord will bless his own word, to their eternal benefit.

Sunday 9th May Divine Service in Mr Halls Cabin, Morn & Ev.

Tuesday 11 May we experienced a heavy gale, the Quarter gallery window was broken all to pieces - by the sea; and a great quantity of water came into the Ship. On this day Mrs Watson died Aged 73 years. I had long visited this poor woman; she knew but little, but seemed earnestly to implore mercy.

Wednesday May 12th 19 - Mr Brooks died this morn, Poor man, he was accustomed to swear, at times, during his illness. but when asked the reason for such strange conduct, He would <sup>readily</sup> say it was wrong, and that he was very sorry for it. Both bodies were committed to the deep this evening.

Thursday <sup>13th May</sup> George Matthews died, this poor man appeared very penitent. I hope <sup>he</sup> is now in glory.

Saturday 15th May. In the course of this week the scholars have read St Pauls Epistle to the Philippians; they have been very attentive, and I have spoken to them several times from the same.

Sunday 16th May Divine Service on deck, in the morning Mr Halls cabin in the evening.
