

Saturday May 22th. We have had regular school this week, but I have been so poorly; that I have not been able to attend three days. In visiting the sick this week, I have found poor Bailey, exceeding anxious about his soul, I endeavour to comfort him with Gods promises in his Holy Word, and to direct him to look to Christ, for pardon, grace, and eternal life.

Sunday May 23th Divine Service on deck in the morning Mr Hall's Cabin in the evening. On this day Mr Bailey died: I trust he died in faith, looking unto Jesus, I hope he is now in glory in the presence of his Redeemer & God.

Saturday May 29th

School as usual this week, and I believe the Lord is carrying on a work of grace in several of them, may it increase among them more and more.

Visited the sick in the Hospital, endeavoured according to my general custom, to speak a word in season.

All of them seem very thankful for my visits.

The Scourge has made its appearance among the Convicts; many of them are very much afflicted with it. We have had foul winds for several days past; and it is so at this time. Water and other necessaries are growing very short.

Sunday May 30th Divine Service in Mr Hall's cabin
Myself taken very poorly with pain in stomach
Monday much better, bless God for it —
