the word then and poor Tooi shall be healed. My life is of comparatively of little value. blessed Jesus, I offer my life for his. O let not the Son of God think in presumption in me, when I add, not my will be done but thine. I am not afraid to die, because thou hast given me to believe that thou hast redeemed my life from destruction. O hear my prayer then, for my friend, thou great thou glorious THOU JESUS. The friends of Seniors.

Wednesday 30 Dec 1818

A.M. from One O'clock to 5 his cough easier. got some rest which has much refreshed him. The Doctor seems to have rather a better opinion of his case than he had yesterday. No blood in his expectoration. I do thank thee O Jesus for every favourable symptom and to thyself a fresh revenue of glory in restoring him. P.M. bled a little at the nose.

Thursday 31 Dec

A.M. My dear friend Tooi passed a tolerable quiet night his cough not near so distressing as on former nights. But he is very low spirited and complains of weakness. Shortly after he had done so, he suddenly revived and was cheerful. D. Gilbert seems to think the symptoms favourable upon the whole. Mr. Butler rec'd. a letter from Mr. Bickerseth. Thanks be to God, he is coming down. be pleased heavenly Father to give him journeying mercies.
Tooi much pleased at the thought of seeing his dear friend.
Went on board the Baring in Dock, find she will not be detained there so long as we expected, having sustained very little damage & God's almighty bless us all and restore and preserve our health & grant us a prosperous voyage. P.M. Tooi eat a comfortable dinner, which seems to have done him good.

Friday 1 Jan 1819

A.M. Tooi has had some severe fits of coughing during the night but he had some refreshing sleep which has done him good. He is evidently much better. Thanks be to thee O Jesus it is not the first time that thou hast been better to me than all my fears O how good is our God. A.M. arrived our dear and heavenly minded friends Mr. Bickerseth and Mr. Cooper and refreshed us much by their sweet conversation. Mr. B. read the 21 Chap. Matthew & beautifully expounded it and Mr. Cooper engaged in prayer.

Saturday 2<sup>d</sup> Jan

A.M. Tooi arose early to breakfast with Mr. Bickerseth & Mr. Cooper previous to their departure for London. Thanks be to our God he is getting better fast. Thou O Jesus hast heard our prayers and granted our petitions for which we bless thee and praise thee. Mr. Bickerseth read the 133 Psalm and expounded it and engaged in prayer. after which we accompanied our friends to the Dock yard to see the Baring and parted with them at the Dock gates. Altho' it is more probable that we shall never meet again in this world. I trust we shall in that great day when a smile from the Adorable Saviour will be of more value than the whole world.
