Thee O Jesus, Thou hast manifested Thyself to them as well as to us He pleased to restore poor Mr. Jesby to health. P.M. Moderate pleasant weather.

Wednesday 20 Jan 1819

A.M. Blowing strong from the N N W with rain Employed writing L<sup>rs</sup> with Tooi & Teetooce & with Mr. Kemp in teaching them.

Thursday 21 Jan

A.M. At midnight a tremendous tempest of wind & rain for a few hours - went upon my knees to ask Him, who said to the waves peace, be still, to calm the troubled Elements and He did so - Mr. Kemp & myself Employed this Day instructing Tooi & Teetooce. Help us O Lord to teach them and to learn their Languages.

Friday 22 Jan

A.M. Calm pleasant weather wind S W engaged together with Mr. Kemp instructing Tooi & Teetooce & endeavouring to learn their languages - The Lord Jesus Help us for without Thee we can do nothing as we ought to do. P.M. - 15°. Weather and Employment. Still wind bound but it is a Christians duty not to complain should the Ship get aground upon her reef houses.

Saturday 23 Jan

A.M. The wind still in our teeth - Employed as before - distressed in mind this day. God be merciful to me a sinner.
Let not the Enemy get an advantage over me. O subdue the evil in my heart O God I humbly beseech Thee.

Sunday 24 Jan

A.M. The wind changed to the South & somewhat a frost to the eastward of I. - His Majesty's Ship Tribune got under weigh and several other Ships - Had prayer as usual this Morning in our Cabin & at 10 o'clock Mr. Butler read the Service of the Church P.M. Sent the Lybee Frigate but she was obliged to pull back in the afternoon Mr. & Mrs. Kemp Tooi & Teetooce & Paul Butler assembled & Read for our improvement two Sermons - In the Evening Mr. Butler read the beautiful Service of the Church of England and a Sermon out of Budders Collection.
I hope I feel myself somewhat refreshed this day - The Lord helps me, and keeps me, and give me not up to myself I most humbly beseech Thee. I am sorry O God before Thee for what I said to my Brother in Jesus Mr. Kemp yesterday. But Thou knowest O Jesus how to make it work together for good.
I beseech Thee that Thou wilt be pleased to do so.

Monday 25 Jan
