

Thursday Feb. 11. 1819

194 A M. fine weather brought the ship to an anchor in 40 fathoms went on shore with Tooi & Teerovee and dined with Mr Butler Mr Croft & Mr Kemp at the British Hotel. Remained on shore all night - Tooi self slept in a Double bedded Room when pouring out my soul to God before we went to rest, and acknowledging my sins. poor Tooi burst into a flood of tears on a recollection of his sin and wept and sobbed more than an hour.

Friday 12 Feb.

A M. arose at day light each of us took a penny and went up the mountain - saw the interior of one of their Churches where are some exquisite paintings - The Warlet of Babylon seems to bear rule completely in this Island - May the Sun of Righteousness arise and dispell the thick Darkness of Popery which overhangs this delicious part of the Creation - The poor seem to be in wretchedness and ignorance - Breakfasted at 12 o'clock & went on board in the Evening. The ship receiving Water & Reparatment

Saturday 13 Feb.

A M. beautiful West wind to the N E at 12 weighed the anchor and made sail with light airs of wind & sometimes calm - in Company with with a Portuguese Schooner & a smart breeze sprang up in the Evening which wafted us on our voyage at the rate of 6 or 7 knots an hour during the night. and sailed and lost sight of our consort.

Sunday 14 Feb

A M. Running with a fine breeze from the N E right before the wind - The Church rigged out at 10 o'clock Mr Croft performed Divine Service - & Mr Butler read prayers in our Cabin in the Evening Mr Kemp very poorly and not able to attend Mr Roberts the boatswain pray attended - we threw open the cabin door and as many sailors as could came in and several got round the Door - May the Lord give his Blessing.

Monday 15 Feb

A M. At day light saw the Island of Palma, one of the Canaries Employed from time to time along with Mr Kemp in endeavouring to teach Tooi & Teerovee. they do not attend to their learning with any pleasure - it is like imprisonment to them to be in the Cabin. they would rather be upon deck with one or other of their numerous acquaintance they have found since they came on board this ship. The Lord enable us to bear with patience that which is grievous to our souls.

Tuesday 16 Feb

A M. We are proceeding as delightfully as we can with towards our desired haven with respects to wind & weather. The Lord is good and is answering our prayers. we have a fine breeze from the N E which is carrying us at the rate of 7 knots
