

<sup>196</sup>
Sunday 27 June 1819
Mr. Butler received a letter from that friend he mentioned The Rev. S. Marsden expressive of his joy on our arrival.
Mr. Butler immediately went up to Parramatta. Went to Church and heard Mr. Hill preach from 40 Isaiah 6. 7. & 8. a funeral sermon for the Queen of England. Heard Mr. Lawrie preach from 12 Matt. 41 v. Mr. Kemp again taken ill, obliged to call in Medical assistance.

Monday 28 June.

Mr. & Mrs. Marsden and part of their family with Mr. Butler arrived from Parramatta. Tooi and Teetooee quite rejoiced to see their old friends again.

Tuesday 29 June

Employed getting our stores and baggage out of the Baring

Wednesday 30 June

Employed as on the preceding day - went to Church in the Evening and heard Mr. Cowper preach from the 101 Psalm

Thursday 1 July

Still engaged on board the Baring seeing our things got out and conveyed to Mr. Campbell's storehouse

Friday 2 July

Got all our personal baggage into a boat and went up to Parramatta where we were most kindly bid welcome by Mr.
Marsden and his family. We give thee unfeigned thanks O Jesus that Thou hast again answered our prayers and brought us to the place where we have long wished to be - We give thee unfeigned thanks that Thou hast been with us in the dangers of the sea and that Thou hast delivered us from the craft and policy of Satan and from unreasonableness and wicked men.
O give us more precious faith, carry us quickly to our destina-tion and may we there be peace makers, and ever pursue the things which make for peace. - Tooi and Teetooee quite at home, and delighted with meeting all their old friends again.

Saturday 3 July

Employed variously. - Accompanied Mr. Marsden in the Evening to visit the Sick - one poor woman under most dread-ful temptations - she has made many attempts upon her own life - says she is desirous of being in Hell that she may know the worst of it. Thinks she shall have greater punishment than Devils. The power of darkness seemeth loose upon this wretched woman - she is constantly tempted to blaspheme God. May the Adorable Jesus make bare His Everlasting Arm in her defence.
