yard on Sunday Morning; very clever Carpenter -enter on board soon mend him: away she goes again, sometimes 9 knots. By and by near new holland coast, wind against us, could not make land: very little water left: we very glad to make Van Diemens land, go into harbour, all go on shore and go see the Governour, I know him before. Beautiful Potatoes, fine Mutton, fine Beef: Convicts so pleased, plenty kei kei: stay there one week. Monday morning the ship sail, blow very hard: fair wind come, Captain Lamb sung out, turn the hands up and make sail, and we see Sydney in four days, and anchored the ship. Came on shore in Capⁿ Pipers boat. All New South Wales friends very glad to see us. I very happy to see my friend M^r. Marsden and all family quite well and very glad to see us. We very soon go to New Zealand, M^r. Marsden he go with us. Six of my country people at Parramatta. Charly Marsden going to England learn be a doctor; very good boy, very fond of the horse back. Give my kind love to M^{rs}. Pratt and all your family, and M^r. and M^{rs}. Bickersteth M^{rs}. Gannon, and all Missionary friends in England. I will thank you to pray for me
