

Samuel Marsden to CMS Secretary Josiah Pratt

Sydney July 22<sup>d</sup> 1819

Rev<sup>d</sup> & Dear Sir,

It is said the Surry will sail this day, I have therefore closed all the Concerns of the Society up to this day, and the Salaries of the Settlers up to the 1th of Aug<sup>s</sup>. I have given Credit for the Sums Mess<sup>rs</sup> Carlisle and Gordon were indebted to the Society, so as finally to settle all the Accounts to prevent any Confusion— Previous to my sailing I will close the Account of the present outfit of the Settlers, and mechanics, who accompany me and M<sup>r</sup> Butler, &c to New Zealand in the General Gates. The Balance I have drawn for by this Conveyance is £582. 10<sup>s</sup>. 1<sup>d</sup>. which I hope you will find correct—

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Yours very sincerely

Sam<sup>l</sup> Marsden
