

opening before you and their labourers. They beg to assure you that they will readily cover, to the utmost of their power, all expences which it may be necessary to incur in prosecution of the Society's objects.

We pray God our Saviour graciously to bless you and all your family, and to grant us faith and patience in labouring for His Glory.

We are ever, Dear Sir,

Affectionately yours,

(Signed) Josiah Pratt
Edw<sup>d</sup> Bickersteth