

of both ought to be allowed for the school. I have endeavored to keep the school together as long as I could, and have spent for this purpose some of my own private property. I can now do no more. The Society is much better able as a body to support the school than I am as an individual -