Samuel Marsden to CMS Secretary Josiah Pratt

Sydney July 28 1819

Rev^d & Dear Sir,

I am now on the eve of embarking for New Zealand and expect to be on Board as soon as I have closed this note to you. The Rev^d J. Butler and all his Associates are well, and in good Spirit, the Active is now off the Heads, and has sent her Boat in; as she can not get in herself, from the contrary winds - I am happy to say all the Settlers are well at the Bay of islands and going on well. 12 New Zealanders are come over now in the Active. 16 will be left at Parramatta. [f] Two are learning to make Bricks, 1 nail making, another in the Blacksmith Shop, and the others will be employed in my Absence till the Active returns to N. Zealand, in some useful work,- I found it necessary to take up the General Gates, as the Active was at New Zealand, when Mr Butler &c arrived. She could not have afforded Room for the Missionary Stores Passangers &c &c and the Expence of keeping the Rev^d M^r Butler here with his Colleagues w^d have been very heavy, where every thing, Lodgings &c are so dear - £300 would have gone a little way [f] in this Colony and while here they w^d gain no Good. In order to lessen the Expenses, and to get them upon the Field of Action, as soon as possible I took up the General Gates, in which I take four Head of Horned Cattle and some Sheep, The mechanics and their Families. The Active will come to New Zealand for me when fitted out to Sea again - By the time she arrives, if all is well, we shall have made all the necessary arrangements for the future welfare of the Settlem^t. Mess^{rs} Butler Hall and Kemp are in great Spirits. The young men who have arrived in the Boat, delighted them much. I hope all will be well [f] we have met with no discouragemts as yet - I now hope the Storm is broke in this Colony, and the Opposition subdued in great measure. The Judge Advocate sent me £10-10^s as a donation with the accompanying note - I waited upon him, thanked him for his donation - he assured me that he would give every Countenance and support to our Plans - and I am convinced he will - we have got him now completely on our Side - I wish to be thankful to almighty God for his kind overruling Providence - I waited upon the Governor to pay my Respects to him prior to my embarking - he was very, very polite and civil, and thinks [f] his Excellency will not oppose our views. So far well. Our Cause is gaining Ground in the Colony, and will prevail. We shall get Support in time. M^r Edward Riley has given £10 to the C. M. S. which you have Credit for in the accompanying Accounts - I have drawn upon you for £511" 19.2 and have inclosed the voucher for the Satisfaction of the Committee. Shall write again immediately on my return to the Colony or if I should fall in with a Whaler for Europe - you will excuse great Haste, as we are all in a hurry - The Ladies are embarked and I am [f] just ready to follow them in the Boat – I cannot wait for the Active's Letters as she cannot get in, and the General Gates cannot stay as the Cattle &c &c are on Board - Wishing every Blessing may attend the Labors of the Society

yours very affectionately
