

new Island and I hope Government will attend to it when the present Powers that be are removed. I shall embrace every opportunity to promote the Interest of the Country you live in. so that you may depend at all times upon my support while I remain in the Colony - I hope my difficulties will be less than what they have been in time -

I have sent over Mr James Shepherd to live with Jimmuranga and his party. you will give him all the aid you can in building him a little house or - He is well acquainted with gardening, grafting, &c. &c. &c. &c. &c. &c. he will be very useful in all these respects I will send him some assistance as soon as I can -

Should the King's Ships come I will try to send the Hoopes &c - You will be so good as to give our kind respects to Mrs. B. &c. - She will be gratified to know that her son is well, and gets on well - I think he will soon be released, and when he comes back again, she will not regret that he came with me, as he will be more likely to be a comfort to her, than if he had never been from her - I shall send the wheat &c. &c. in the future -

I remain

Dr Sir

Yours affectionately

Sam. Mander
