

as this would be attended with much trouble and expense; as well as loss of time, and many privations to myself and family.
I think you will be concerned when even my cause is heard, that all manner of evil have been shaken to the palace, and that I am justly entitled to rejoice in this. I cannot for want of time send you the particulars of what has come under the immediate examination of the Commission by this conveyance but hope to do so by the next — God will in the end bring good out of evil, whether I am acquitted or condemned

I am
Rev. Sir
