William Cox to Samuel Marsden

Parramatta.

Dear Sir

26th Feby.

1821.

In answer to yours in regards to the prices of Working Bullocks at this period. I beg to state that I purchased four [?] about three months since at Ten pounds sterlg per head since which I sold Two Working Bullocks at the sum of Twelve pounds ten shillings per head. Which latter price I Consider to be a fair one for such catle. They being good ones —

I am

Dear Sir

very truly yours

W^m. Cox.
