afraid she would not arrive in time to carry them seed wheat - Mr. Corwell was to have gone at the same time but he wished to remain a little longer till he had got all the tools made he wanted - I much regret the death of his wife - The ways of God are very mysterious - I hope things will go on better with the missionaries amongst them
- Alas - The natives behave well, but the missionaries want on head Mr. Butler is too warm, and unstable - Miss^{rs} Francis Hall & French are valuable men - Very few men are to be met with like Mr. Francis Hall for sincerity, and goodness of character -

As their external comforts increase, their union will probably increase - I sometimes am inclined to think the Rev. J. Butler will not remain long - Mrs. Butler seems to have come out against her will - and repeatedly told me she would not stay - She is a violent woman equally as soon angry as her Husband - If I had not gone over in the Drumdam, Mrs. Butler was then talking of returning
