No. 100: Master of the Ship

July Sydney 21. 1821

49

Ch. d. 20/21

Per Dear Sir Com. Jan. 14/21
Ans. Dec. 28/21.

I find it necessary to drop you a line in addition to my former letter - Capt.
Dunn brought from the Phoenix four new Island Chiefs with him on the Commodore, with intention to take them to England - From what Mungbee said to them they declined to proceed any further - I suspected the Officers were offended with me on this subject - I wrote to Captain Dunn to provide for them when they left the Ship, or to apply to the Governor - I was to do this - This he declined to do - I then wrote a letter on His Majesty's Service to him on the same subject - He now found it necessary to lay my letter before the Governor - It was arranged between them, that the new Islanders should be put on board the Commodore again - but as I did not know what Captain Dunn's intention was, I wished to learn this, and wrote again an official letter to the Colonial Secretary - As I was not without my fears they might be
