

Since of Parvuratta finding I could meet with no more good enough that I could get for him at least one that he approved, I was obliged to take him and his family into my own House - He had a wife three Children and one man servant.
This was attended with some Inconvenience, as my own family was large - Mr. Croft remained in my House till my return - Shortly after His Majesty's Ship the Provedary arrived from England - when Captain Skinner applied to the Governor, and wished me to accompany him to New Zealand as I might prevent any Difference between the natives and the Ships Company - I also offered my services to Capⁿ Skinner - The Gov^r consented to my going in the Provedary upon the former Conditions, that Government should not pay any Rent for the Clergy man who did my Duty during my Absence - The Rev^d Mr. Middleton was appointed He was a young man, with only one Child, his wife being dead - Mr. Middleton took up his Residence
