to Mr. Marsden }
Rev^d and Dear Sir

I duly received your favour of the 13th Inst and in reply thereto, I beg to express my readiness, at any future time, to render any assistance in my power to further the objects of the Church Missionary Society in promoting the knowledge of the Redeemer.

Your experience, and cooler judgment prepared you for what has occurred. But I am constrained to own that I am grievously disappointed. And I regret the more because
