

could pay no money upon the Resolutions of the C. Committee, until the Parent Society had authorized me to do so - I contended they had only received their Authority from me, and therefore they could not compel me to do what I felt in my Conscience I was not authorized to do - and that I was ^{the} only one responsible for the monies drawn and, not them - They yielded generally to my Arguments with the Exception of the Secretary Captain Greene - A Demand was also made for the past Accounts of the Society - these I objected to deliver up without Authority from the Committee in London - This Demand was urged only by Captain Greene - but he argued without these Accounts nothing could be done - I was willing they should examine them as they stood in M^r. Campbell's Ledger either individually or all together, but Copies of these Accounts I was not warranted in giving as the Society's Confidential Agent and on that Ground refused - This Demand
