

Ship Brampton,

Sept 10 1823

Rev. Sir,

As I have now no other means of removing my property from on board of this Ship which is now stranded on the shore of Waitangi or of supporting my Family until I can be accommodated with a passage on board of another Vessel than by applying to you as Agent of the Church Missionary Society, I beg leave to request you will adopt measures for my assistance as speedily as possible.

Waiting for an answer from you
I remain

Rev. Sir,

Your Obedient Servant
signed Thomas Kendall

Rev. S. Marsden.

Rev. Sir

The dreadful calamity that has befallen the Brampton has embarrassed me very much, I was in hopes when we were embarked the difficulties were in a great measure over, but now I am at a loss to know what to do, In the first place, I
