

224
I strongly recommend you to return to Pomare's place where you were so quietly settled, untill an opportunity offers for our return to Port Jackson.
It will be exceedingly painful for you to go again to Orange Bay, this measure I never can approve of, and I hope you have no intention to take that step.
It would be throwing yourself into the very snare of the Devil and greatly increasing your own dangers and distressing your Family. It is impossible to foresee what calamities might be the consequence. Take my advice and retire to where you were before, and I will do what I can to provide for your wants, while you remain here - you know my hands are tied with respect to the Society, but I will take what responsibility upon myself I can on the condition of your following my advice, and I pledge myself to give you the best advice I can - If you will not follow my advice but your own, I shall probably be obliged from principle and justice to refuse you what I might otherwise feel justified in granting on the express condition that you act under my direction, I hope you will be advised for your own sake, and for the sake of the cause in which you have been engaged. Let me know what your determination is as soon as you can.

I remain

Dear Mr. Kendall

Your wellwisher
signed Samuel Marsden