

I do most seriously think you have forfeited every claim to the Society's patronage and protection both respect to your remaining in New Zealand after what I have said to you, this will rest wholly with yourself. I intend to have no further altercation with you on this business.

One objection you state against going to Port Jackson is that you will be degraded in the Colony. You cannot expect that the better part of Society would respect you as they would have done if you had acted consistent with your sacred Character, nor can you ever expect to regain that Rank in Society in any part of the World which you have lost. You may thro' the Divine Goodness enjoy peace of mind in the knowledge of the Divine Mercy. I need not tell you that no man can be happy who does not attend to our Lords command.

Learn of me says the blessed Jesus, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your soul!

Carry these words with you by day, lay them upon your pillow by night, when you have learned this lesson, your sin
