

2 consider what sum should be allowed for the Building and after support of each School - as no Schools were established any were which was a very painful consideration -

I had also cause to be much dissatisfied with the Expenditure of the public Stores, and therefore drew up the following Regulations for their future Issue - I could get no returns from Mr Kendall of his Expenditure, nor a satisfactory one from any of the missionaries at Rangbeshoo, as the Stores they contended had been put under the charge of Mr Kendall they considered him responsible. Mr Kendall alleged he had sent all his accounts home to the Society - so that I could do nothing with him -

Regulations

1st That all Articles furnished from time to time by the Society in England or purchased in New South Wales by the Society's Agent for the use of the Mission be deposited in one common Store and considered as common Stock &c in no