

101 3

case to be applied by any individual, Missionary, or Lay Settler, to his own use or convenience either for Building or purchasing of Lands, Provisions or other Expenditure.

2nd That no Articles shall be drawn from the common Store without the consent of two thirds of the Brethren first obtained and without an entry made at the time of the number and kind of Articles taken from the common Store and the purpose for which they are taken which entry is to be signed by the Missionaries, and further the Storekeepers shall be requested to make copies Quarterly of the Invoices of all Stores received, expended, and on hand and to what purposes such expenditures are applied and transmit them to the Committee at home and duplicate to the Society's Agent in N.S. Wales.

3rd That the Storekeepers with the assistance of the Missionaries and Lay Settlers shall make out a list of Articles for Baster and the general purposes of the Mission from time to time, which list shall be approved by at least two thirds