

101

receive no Salary nor any support from the Society's Stores until the whole Proceedings are submitted to the Society's Agent in New South Wales or to the Committee of the Church Missionary Society in London.

The charges with the evidences in support of them shall be taken down in writing with whatever the accused person or persons may advance in reply to them by way of justification so that the Society's Agent in New South Wales or the Committee at home may be put in full possession of all circumstances in order that impartial justice may be done between party and party. It is also further directed that if any Missionary or Lay Settler shall neglect his public duty and live in Idleness and negligence that such shall be admonished of his duty by the Committee, and if the admonition produces no Effect upon his future conduct he shall then be reported to the Society's Agent in New South Wales, and also to the Committee in London by the first opportunity.