

indecencies you cannot always shut your eyes to what you see nor your ears to what you hear you are in danger of gradually losing those deli-cate feelings which like watchful -sentinels in the breast of the virtu-ous repress every impure and intrud-ing thought and suppress every -lustful desire, you should always bear in mind that you are not called upon in New Zealand to strive against sin upon common Christian ground, but in the very heart of Satan's dominion, you are not surrounded by a multitude of Christian soldiers to assist you in the fiery combat, to protect you in danger to support you when falling or to carry you off the field of battle when wounded. An ungod-ly world will make no allowance for you when you fall into sin however great your temptations may be nor will the Christian world, men of sound piety who have never been placed in a similar situation of temptation and trial sympathize with you when you are overcome of evil but all will condemn you and your warmest friends will not be able to defend you. Let me earnestly intreat you who have sinned to sin no
