

duties of your respective Situations as Servants of the Society. — Such persons as offending will be dismissed from the Mission. At the same time it is hoped that the example made by the dismissal of the Rev^d Tho^s. Kendall who stood so high in the good opinion of the Society and had such powerful friends in the Committee, and the retirement of Mr. Cowel from the Mission will operate upon all your minds with sufficient force to induce you ^{to do your duty} as men who expect to give up their account at the last day with joy to God the Judge of all who will reward every man according to his works — That you and I may receive in the morning of the Resurrection of the just that blessing which the Son of man will pronounce upon all them that love and fear him "well done good and faithful Servant enter ye into the joy of your Lord", is the devout prayer of Dear Brethren
