

it convenient and give them such religious instructions as he may think proper. But the Society will look to you for the performance of every other duty connected with the School, and you are to consider the Superintendance of this Institution your proper duty untill further orders. — While the School must be your great object I hope from the arrangements that have been made relative to the public Stores you will be enabled for the present to act as store keeper without much inconvenience to yourself until more assistance arrives in the Settlement.

I am

To
 Dear Sir
 Mr James Kemp Yours truly
 signed Sam^l Marsden

Huddes Huddes Oct^r

1823

Dear Sir
 From the different conversations I have had with you respecting the establishment of a public School at Huddes, I feel a strong conviction that you and Mr Kemp will never cordially unite in this important undertaking