

told Mrs Kendall when he was conveying her and my children to this place that we were to receive our proper rate.
 I only told you at Te Kedi Kedi what I had before told the Mission-aries that I should bring my family among them. I do not like to be disappointed by persons who have not only a right to be careful of the Society's stores but who have a right as trustees to do all the Missionaries and their families equal justice, Give me leave, Dear Sir, to tell you that there are very few of those pious persons whose province it is to plead in England in behalf of this Mission who would not sympathize with me and my family, after my open-ness and candour, and after such providential escapes as we have received rather than listen to long and end-less suspicions. I again repeat the assurance that I am ready to write or to do any thing in order to promote the objects of the Society at New Zealand, And this with pay or without pay, with support or without support, with kind treatment or with contempt. Indeed I hope I shall never hesitate to do this.
 Nor am I, nor need I be anxious
