

to complete it, and how long time it may reasonably be expected to take to finish the house - Some definite period should be fixed upon. <sup>or</sup> I am convinced it will not be done for more than twelve months to come - The Messrs Williams has spoken to me several times about Mr Puckey, as he will want him to assist in building the long boat as soon as he can be spared - I cannot give him any answer until I can learn when Mr Puckey is likely to be at liberty.

It is with much concern I inform you it has been communicated to me that you were in a state of insobriety on board the Brig Dragon on Monday Evening the 27 instand, This is a charge of so serious a nature against your sacred character as a minister of
