

(81)

Res^d. and dear Sir

I am not at all alarmed at what you have heard but do beg you will bring my accuser to face in my house this day, that the truth may be known, I am fully prepared to bear all the malignity that my enemies can lay upon me, an alteration any man might see in my countenance from the distress of my mind, but whether liquor was the cause remains to be proved by complying with the above you will much oblige

Res^d. and dear Sir

Yours truly

signed

John Buller

Res^d. J. Howden

in haste

Reddee Reddee Oct. 31
1823Res^d. Sir

It is impossible for me to bring the persons to your house who stated to me what I have communicated a few minutes ago to you by letter — now am I going to examine