101

3 No timber of any kind either in plank or log is to be hereafter supplied to any ship or vessel by any Missionary or other persons in the service of the Society without the full consent of the Committee which shall be first obtained, and the proceeds of all such timber shall be carried to the credit of the Society.

Should any of the Missionaries directly or indirectly violate any of the above regulations their colleagues are solemnly enjoined to report such violation to the Society's Agent in New South Wales, and to the Parent Committee in London, in order that such Missionaries may be punished by suspension or dismissal as the nature of their offence may require

4th It is further ordered that all transactions with Ships which the Missionaries shall have either as a Body or as individuals, shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose as a public record in order that the Missionaries may at all times be able to justify their conduct to their Superiors and to stop the mouths of gainsayers

The above Regulations to remain in force until the Parent Committee
