I he has Shungee on his side to support him by force. You have nothing what-ever to apprehend from Shungee unless at Mr Kendall's instigation. He has obtained great influence ~~and~~ Shungee and to him he will apply if he can-not gain his wishes any other way, he will work upon ~~Shungee's~~ Shungee's mind by telling him that we are an unforgiving people and that we have left him to starve with his family. Shungee not being able to enter into our views of Mr Kendall's conduct will espouse Mr Kendall's interests, tho' he disapproves of his conduct, yet he thinks he should now be pardoned. In short you must be guided by your own conduct in this business by existing circumstances leaving all to him who has the heart of the savage matters in his hands. In times of difficulty you ^{will} consult your colleagues and take their advice. I have thought it necessary to give you the above Instructions in order that you may act with confi-dence should you meet with any of the above difficulties

I am

Yours truly
