

101 35

occasioned to all concerned in the work I may also add the afflictions they have brought upon their families. I do most sincerely pray that these dreadful examples will be a warning to all who remain in the Mission; and that every one that has despised the authority of their Superiors will not venture to proceed any further in their own way. — what has happened to your colleagues, may and will happen to you, if you do not avoid the evil that others have fallen into. If the Messrs J Kendall and J Buttes would have followed the directions of the Society and not through pride and stubbornness followed their own ways, they would have been a blessing to the Mission, an honour to <sup>the</sup> Society esteemed and loved by the whole Christian world. what peace would they then have enjoyed in God and their own Consciences, Alas what is the state of their minds now? what disgrace will attend them? what sorrow will accompany them to the Grave. If one man sin against another the Judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall intercede for him? If the fall and punishment of Messrs Buttes and Kendall does not induce you who remain in the Mission to do your duty, nothing ever will. The sooner those leave the Mission