

why it was deemed prudent, although I am not flow on the societies funds I feel myself as much as ever your servant in the ordinary sense. Should you deem it right to give Mr. Marsden instructions respecting my leaving the colony, I hope I shall feel perfectly satisfied; or if with Mr. M. you think I may be of more service among the Aborigines of New Wales I wish to be equally satisfied, I only want to know your will. At some future time I may be able to give you some information respecting this Mission, but my resent Settlement ^{in it} ~~never~~ forbids me to say any thing respecting it at present, the natives are the most degraded set of creatures I ever saw, I should be very happy to receive a letter from you in which I should be glad to know your will respecting my present or future destination, in the meantime I remain Dear Sir

Yours faithfully
George Clarke