

for refreshments. On the vessel leaving the harbour Duaterra embarked on board of her, with two of his countrymen. The Argo remained on the coast for about five months, and then returned into the Bay. - On the vessel's final departure from Newzealand for Port Jackson, Duaterra sailed in her, and arrived in Sydney Cove. After the 'Argo' was again ready for sea, she went to fish on the coast of New Holland where she remained about six months and afterwards put into Port Jackson. - During this cruise Duaterra acted in the capacity of a common sailor, and was attached to one of the whale-boats. -

While the Argo lay in Sydney-cove, Duaterra was discharged from her, but, received no remuneration for his services during the twelve months he had been on board. -

On his leaving the 'Argo' he entered on board the 'Albion' whaler (then in the cove) commanded by Captain Richardson; and was six months on the fishery, in that vessel, off the coast of Newzealand. and when she put into the Bay of Islands Duaterra left her, and returned to his friends. Captain Richardson behaved very kindly to him, and paid him wages (in various European articles) for his services on board the 'Albion'. -

Duaterra remained in Newzealand six months, when the 'Santa Anna' whaler anchored
