

" I shall ever remember it. My poor country is in " a dark state; but at the day of judgment this " country will have more to answer for; for this " country has the light shining before them; and
 " it certainly must be their own fault, if they walk
 " in darkness." After a while he added
 " Alas! my poor country knows no better, but " I hope before long they will have these glorious " truths revealed to them; and how happy shall " I be, if I should be able to return and assist in " teaching them."

At another time, on advent Sunday, Mr. Short having asked him, "what was the design of the Redeemer's coming into the world; Mowhee immediately replied " He came into the world to save " Sinners, had he not come and suffered, you
 " and I could never have reached heaven.
 " Had he not died for our sins, we must have " perished forever." I cannot here pass over the great kindness of another esteemed friend — Mr. Foates. On my leaving London, I requested him also, occasionally to visit Mowhee, and to explain to his capacity, the Doctrines, and duties of our most holy religion. I thought that the instructions of persons of different attainments and education might contribute by its variety, to render Divine truth more easy to be understood
