

a dejected air " But my countrymen will not attend to what I tell them".

After my return to London, I desired him, one morning to accompany to the philological school, myself and the Sultan 'Katagerry' who is lately come from Tartary to acquire information that he may hereafter benefit his Countrymen. - Here he was greatly delighted; the first principles of Geography were explained to him, in a new and simple Method. The Longitude and Latitude of his own of his own Country and the probable employment of its Inhabitants, at the different hours of the day, were pointed out to him, with all this he seemed much gratified.

The damp and foggy weather of November greatly tried his Constitution. - He contracted a very bad cough; and for a time, contended with the usual symptoms of rapid consumption.

I instantly put him under the care of a medical relative, Mr. Chas. Woodds; and in a short time was happy to find that under his kind attention, all the alarming symptoms were completely removed, as it was evident however that this damp and cold atmosphere did not agree with him, it was judged, etc.
