

by coming to England." "I trust Sir, I got good to my soul before I came to England, when I was at Norfolk Island, and in New-Holland" after a pause. he added "also since I have attended the school Mr Hazard has been very kind, and has taken great pains. He often read the scriptures with me, and explained them." - I said you are sensible of your state, as a sinner before God." - He shook his head, and replied in his usual manner of assent "oh yes - oh yes! very sensible of that." - I then said, "I hope all your dependance for pardon and mercy at the hand of God is wholly and entirely built on the death and merit of our blessed Saviour." - He again shook his head, which was his ordinary custom when any thing interested him, and replied "oh yes! - oh yes! on him alone." He that believeth on him, shall have everlasting salvation." - I again observed "I trust you endeavour to submit to the will of God, your heavenly Father; and I hope, that, in your present situation, you feel the support, and consolation of the Gospel of Christ." He replies, "oh Sir! I cannot express what I feel." - "I have not words; but it is in my imagination - It is in my thoughts."
