

countenance upon you, and give you peace! and when called hence to be no more seen, may He receive you to his Heavenly Kingdom! - I then withdrew. -

Soon after, as the disorder advanced, he became delirious; but at intervals he was intelligent, and seemed at those periods, engaged in lifting up his heart in prayer to God. - The next morning he appeared, for a time a little revived; and lay very tranquil, resigned and happy. -

He had been literally in a sweat of blood, but it considerably abated. Two persons were with him, and frequently bathed his face with vinegar, which seemed to refresh him. -

About five in the morning, one of his attendants read by him the prayers of the service for the visitation of the sick.

He seemed to hear with attention, and to be wholly occupied in prayer; but nature was nearly exhausted. - He lay in this state, till about half past seven, when death closed his eyes, on the twenty eighth day of December 1816: and we humbly trust that "Mortality was swallowed up of life - even. Life everlasting". How mysterious is the Providence of God! How unsearchable are
