

we used of them, dressed after our own mode.
 — Early on Wednesday the 11th we took our leave of this extraordinary fortification, and the people who resided in it, intending to breakfast at the village belonging to Terria, about five miles distant. — Shunghee sent his servants with two fine hogs for the use of the Aepel. — We arrived at Terria's village a little after 7 A.M., where we were very kindly received, the fires were soon lighted and preparations made for breakfast. — Several natives joined us here, whom we had not seen before. Terria was not yet returned.

After Mr. Nicholas and I had breakfasted I had tea made for Terria's wives and Shunghee's, who surrounded us. — They all refused to take any. Shunghee told me they were all tabooed, and thereby prohibited from taking any thing but water. — I pressed Shunghee to allow one of his wives (who had a little child about a month old, and who had followed us from the village, to take it, he said she could not drink any, for if she did his child would die. I was fully convinced that their refusing to take the tea, was founded upon some superstitious notions. — They
