

but they returned without it - I made her a present of some print, and some other trifles - she was very anxious we should wait, till the hog could be found, but, we could not conveniently stay longer, and therefore left this romantic place - This Lady's face, arms, and breasts were all covered with scars, which had been lately cut, in consequence of the death of one of Haupa's children - she was a very fine tall woman. - Haupa did not reside there at the time. - I observed that the pillars leading into the Fortification, were carved with various figures, such as men's heads &c. and some of them had round Caps on their tops, similar to those on Gateways in many parts of England, and were about fourteen feet high. - Shortly after we left Haupa's Lady, we received a Message from Quatera to inform us that he was coming on shore for us; - we met the boat and Quatera landed Petki the Chief came at the same time and wished us to go to the upper end of the village, where he resided, the distance was about two miles along the shore we agreed to visit him, and ordered the Boat to follow us. - When we arrived we met some of the finest men and women I had yet seen in New Zealand. They
