

Station on its banks.

As Mr. William Puckey, whom I had hired, at Port Jackson, ~~and~~ and brought with me to assist in putting up the necessary buildings at the New Settlement, had commanded a vessel for several years out ^{of} England, and was better versed in the Knowledge of navigation, than any other person at New Zealand, I determined to take him with me to examine the